

Jewish Journeys

exhibits historical, cultural, physical, and religious visions that help women pave the way for exploring their Jewish spirituality.

RULES and ENTRY : All applications due by January 4, 2013

1. Participants must be women of Jewish heritage, ages 18 and over.
2. Artwork may be in any medium, but must be a representation of a Jewish Journey: personal, cultural, physical, historical, or religious.
3. See official application for art entry guidelines at mstararts.org/women or pick up a paper application at the JEA.

Those interested in performance art or workshop facilitating please contact Carol Greenberg directly at MStarArts@gmail.com or 912-927-9922.

1. Exhibit dates are February 27 to March 17, 2013.
2. Opening Reception February 27, 2013 (late afternoon or early evening)
3. Free art, text study and performance workshops:
4. Sunday March 3 & March 10, (morning, lunch and afternoon session) &
5. Wednesday March 6, 2013 (late afternoon sessions)

Venue: The JEA, 5111 Abercorn Street/ Savannah, GA 31405

Wednesday, February 27 to
Sunday, March 17,
2013

A 501C3 non-profit 100% volunteer charity supported by donations, MStar's free & open cultural and health events educate, empower & entertain diverse audiences and have done so since 1989

MStarArts.org (on "women" page), and
On all social media as:
MStarArts or
JewishJourneys.Art
(gmail, twitter and facebook)