

SATURDAY
DECEMBER 13, 2008

C

JEA series examines cancer in women

Jewish
Family
Services Educational Series
present an informative
discussion
about the increased risk of breast and ovarian cancer in Jewish
women.

Huffard-King

Rudolph

Burke II

The
discussion
will take place at 7 p.m. Jan.
27, 2009, at
the Jewish Educational Alliance.

C. Shai Huffard-King, a genetic counselor, will lead the discussion, which will include Dr. James J. Burke II and Dr. Ray Rudolph.

Cost: Free and open to the public.

The JEA is located at 5111 Abercorn St.