

Coming to Savannah for one day only:

Meet Award Winning Filmmaker

Mimi Gan

Thursday, May 21, 2009

Youth Workshop 3:45 to 5:30
at Frank Callen Boys & Girls Club of Greater Savannah
&
View her award winning film With Honors Denied
Lecture 7 PM at the JEA (5111 Abercorn Street)

Both Free & Open to the Public
Youth Workshop requires preregistration at 912-233-2939

"A beautifully told, powerful film." Steve Oldfield, FOX News "Truly moving." Phil Hall, Film Threat

With Honors Denied follows Yukiko Kubo Shiogi's 60-year journey from persecution as an imprisoned American teenager during World War II to redemption as a lifelong dream is finally fulfilled.

With Honors Denied is narrated by George Takei, best known for his role as Mr. Sulu in the Star Trek series who spent much of his childhood behind barbed wire at Japanese American internment camps.

Free & Open to the Public courtesy of
www.MorningStarArts.org

CALL 912-233-2939 to sign up for the workshop or 912-927-9922 for more info.

CITY OF
savannah

Georgia
COUNCIL FOR THE Arts
OFFICE OF THE GOVERNOR

"This Grassroots Arts Program is supported in part by the Georgia Council for the Arts through the appropriations of the Georgia General Assembly and administered by the City of Savannah's Department of Cultural Affairs. GCA is a partner agency of the Georgia Council for the Arts."